5. Terms of Delivery

5.1. Our compliance with the terms of delivery is subject to the following conditions precedent:-

- 5.1.1. the prompt receipt of all data information or specifications (if any) to be supplied by you;
- 5.1.2. the granting of all necessary permits and approvals for delivery of the Goods;
- 5.1.3. your compliance with the agreed terms of payment and the performance of all of your obligations under the Contract. If these conditions precedent are not fulfilled or satisfied in whole or in part, we shall not be liable for any loss or damage whatsoever due to failure by us to deliver to you the Goods or any of them promptly or at all and we shall be entitled to extend the terms of delivery in a manner and to an extent reasonably deemed by us to be appropriate.

5.2. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, we shall determine the route, mode and means of transportation.

5.3. Unless otherwise agreed in writing or stipulated by the applicable INCOTERMS 2020, we shall deem to have complied with the terms of delivery of the Contract when the Goods leave our factory or premises.

5.4. Deadlines and dates are only binding delivery periods (hereinafter "Delivery Periods") if ZEISS has expressly confirmed them as binding. Without express written confirmation they are non-binding target dates.

5.5. If you cause interruption or delay of our contractual performance, or refuse to or are unable for whatever reason to accept delivery of the Goods duly delivered by us to you in accordance with the terms of the Contract, you shall be liable to bear all consequential costs and expenses incurred thereby, including but not limited to costs and expenses of warehouse storage and insurance and the term of delivery shall be extended in a manner and to an extent reasonably deemed by us to be appropriate.

5.6. If we are responsible for any delay in delivery, you agree, upon our request, to provide us with an extension of time of such period(s) as may be reasonably determined by us as sufficient to complete the delivery of the Goods in question, and we shall use our best endeavours to perform the same. You hereby agree that you shall not claim against us for any loss, damage, costs or expenses which you may have incurred in consequence of the delay, unless the amount (if any) has been agreed by both parties in writing.

5.7. Delivery may be made in partial shipments or instalments.

6. Export Control

6.1. The sale, resale, and disposal of the Goods as well as any associated technology or documentation may be governed by German, EU, US export control regulations and, if applicable, the export control law of other countries. A resale to embargoed countries, to denied persons or to persons who use or may use the Goods for military purposes, for ABC weapons or for nuclear technology is subject to an official license. With its order, the Customer declares conformity with such laws and regulations and that the Goods will not be delivered directly or indirectly to countries that prohibit or restrict the import of these Goods. Customer declares to obtain all necessary licenses required for an export and/or import.

6.2. If the fulfilment of an obligation is delayed due to licensing or approval requirements or other requirements or procedures under the applicable export control laws or regulations, the performance time shall be extended accordingly by the duration of such delay.

6.3. ZEISS shall have a right to refuse performance of the contract to the extent that such performance is prohibited by applicable export control laws or regulations. The reason for a refusal to perform must be communicated immediately.

6.4. If an official licence or regulatory approval is required for the export of our Goods and/or Services and if an application for such a licence is not granted or the requisite approval not obtained, we shall be entitled to terminate or cancel the Contract without any liability to you.

7. Notice of Defects and Damage in Transit

7.1. You shall inspect the Goods on delivery and shall notify us in writing immediately and in any event not later than 7 days after receipt of the Goods, of any alleged defect, shortage in quantity or damage.

7.2. If delivered by carrier, you may accept goods with externally visible damage or loss caused by transport only if you note such damage or loss on the freight documents, and this note is countersigned by the carrier. This also applies when internal or latent damage or loss can be assumed on the basis of the external condition of the shipment (e.g. damaged packing). Damage or loss caused by transport which is not externally visible shall be reported to the carrier immediately after discovery. In both cases you shall notify us immediately in writing.

7.3. If you do not act in accordance with clauses 7.1 and 7.2, the Goods shall be conclusively deemed to be complete and in conformity with the Contract and free from any defect or damage which would be apparent on a reasonable examination of the Goods and you shall be deemed to have accepted the Goods

8. Force Majeure

8.1 We shall not be liable to you or be deemed to be in breach of the Contract by reason of any delay in performing, or any failure to perform or comply with the terms of delivery of the Goods insofar as these are caused by force majeure or other events that were not foreseeable at the time the contract was concluded for which ZEISS is not responsible. For the purposes of this clause, force majeure shall mean any events which are unforeseeable or beyond our reasonable control, including without limitation, acts of God, fires, labour disputes, acts of terrorism, war, hostilities between nations, riots, civil disturbances, governmental restrictions, flood, hurricane, earthquake, exceptional adverse weather conditions or events of natural calamities or disasters, epidemics, infectious diseases, insurrections, blockades, changes in law, acts of government, shortages of materials or energy, power or electrical failures, embargoes, unforeseeable business interruption or transportation difficulties, or travel restrictions or travel warnings issued by governmental bodies or other regulatory or international bodies, operational disruptions of any kind, strikes, lawful lockouts, shortages of labour, difficulties in obtaining necessary official permits, pandemics or epidemics, official measures or the failure of suppliers to deliver, to deliver correctly or to deliver on time despite a congruent hedging transaction concluded by the ZEISS.

8.2 Insofar as such events make it substantially more difficult or impossible for ZEISS to provide the delivery or service and the hindrance is not only of temporary duration, ZEISS shall be entitled to rescind the contract without any liability to you. In the event of hindrances of temporary duration, the delivery or service deadlines shall be postponed by the period of the hindrance plus a reasonable start-up period. Insofar as the Customer cannot reasonably be expected to accept the Goods as a result of the delay, Customer may rescind the contract by means of an immediate written declaration to ZEISS.

9. Risk of Loss and Retention of Title

9.1. If the dispatch, collection or delivery is delayed or becomes impossible for reasons beyond our control, we shall notify you accordingly and store the Goods in our warehouse or elsewhere, at your cost and at your risk and upon such storage, our contractual obligation to deliver shall be deemed to be fulfilled, and the risk of loss of or damage to the Goods shall pass to you.

9.2. In spite of delivery of the Goods or any part thereof having been made, title in the Goods shall not pass from us as seller to you as purchaser, until you have made to us full payment of the total purchase price of the Goods and no other sums whatsoever shall be due from you to us.

9.3. We shall not be deemed to have knowledge nor notice of nor to have assented to any subsale or resale by you (if any) to a third party in the ordinary course of business. For the avoidance of doubt, no conduct or any action whatsoever on our part shall be deemed in any way to be an assent to any sale or other disposition of the Goods by you, within the meaning prescribed by the applicable law and shall not defeat or prejudice our lawful rights of lien or retention or stoppage in transit as unpaid seller (in the event you fail to pay the total purchase price or any other payments due to us) and shall not amount to any renunciation whatsoever of our rights thereof against the Goods in question. Until such time as title in the Goods passes to you (and provided the Goods are still in existence and have not been resold), we shall be entitled at any time to require you to forthwith deliver up the Goods to us.

9.4. If you fail to deliver up the Goods forthwith as requested by us, or payment is overdue in whole or in part, or any of the events of insolvency or lack of creditworthiness as set out in clause 4.6 above occur, we may forthwith (without prejudice to any of our other rights) enter upon your premises or the premises of any third party where the Goods are stored, for the purpose of removing, recovering, recalling or retaking possession of the Goods or any of them or any new products manufactured with such Goods from the premises. These conditions constitute authority for any third party authorized by us to enter upon your or any other premises wheresoever the Goods are situated for the purpose of recovering the Goods or any of them.

9.5. At our request, you shall furnish us with all relevant information about the location of the Goods and support us and reimburse us for any costs and expenses incurred by us in securing our title thereto.

9.6. If for any reason reservation or retention of title is not permitted by the applicable law, we may demand from you to provide or furnish to us, any other form(s) of security available at law to us, and you shall be obligated to collaborate in and undertake all measures necessary and legally permissible to secure our claims to the Goods, and to notify us immediately if third parties assert claims, liens or charges which endanger our title thereto.

10. Acceptance

10.1. Acceptance tests shall be conducted only if previously agreed in writing between the parties. In any event you will bear such costs of testing.

10.2. If you request for an acceptance test which we had agreed to conduct on your behalf and at your cost, but subsequently waive the requirement of such a test, or you fail to attend the test in spite of timely notice of the same having been given to you, you shall be deemed to have accepted the Goods upon successful and complete testing carried out by us. Additional costs resulting from the delay of such tests for reasons beyond our control shall be borne by you. In any event, the Goods will be deemed accepted when you first place them in service.

10.3. Acceptance may not be refused because of minor defects, although such acceptance does not relieve us from our obligation to remedy the said defects.

11. Warranty and Liability

11.1. We warrant that the Goods will be free from defects in material, design and workmanship for a period of 12 months from the date of delivery or in the event there is an installation and/or acceptance test, from the date of completion of the installation and/or acceptance test, provided that you notify us in writing immediately after discovery of any alleged defect in material, design and workmanship same and in any event, before the expiry of the 12-month warranty period.

11.2. Subject to the provisions of clause 7 above, if you report any such defect to us, we will, at our option, either replace or repair the Goods or any defective part thereof free of charge. We shall decide whether defects will be repaired at the facility where the Goods are used, or at the facilities of one of our representatives or subsidiaries or at our factory. If we decide not to repair the defects at the facility where the Goods are used, you shall, at your expense, pack the defective Goods properly and safely for shipment and send them to the address designated by us.

11.3. If we do not, within the aforesaid 12-month warranty period, remedy the defect after the expiration of a reasonable period after you had duly notified us in writing of the alleged defect in material, design and workmanship, or if several attempts at repair or replacement have failed, you shall be entitled either to request for a reduction of the purchase price of the Goods, or for a return of the Goods and correspondingly a refund of the purchase price thereof. The amount of deduction shall be determined solely by us after taking into account any reasonable request made by you.

11.4. Upon discovery of any alleged defect in material, design and workmanship, you shall use best endeavours and do all things necessary within your power to keep the damage to a minimum.

11.5. We shall be obligated to remedy defects only if you comply with your contractual obligations. In particular, any payments agreed and due to be paid by you must be made in accordance with the payment terms. In consideration of us undertaking to use our best endeavours to promptly remedy the defects in question, you agree that you shall not withhold any payments to us.

11.6.4 if the Goods have been used in a manner or under a circumstance or for a purpose not reasonably to be inferred by us or disclosed to us prior to making the Contract;

11.6.5 if the total purchase price for the Goods has not been paid by the due date for payment.

11.7. The following provisions shall apply to software:

11.7.2 We warrant that the software delivered to you corresponds to our program specifications, provided it has been installed in our corresponding systems and in accordance with our instructions.

11.7.2 We shall not be liable nor shall we provide any warranty for software, interfaces, operational systems or the like manufactured or produced by other manufacturers and merely supplied by us.

11.7.3 Only software defects which occur or recur in a persistent and repeated manner over a prolonged period of time, which recurrences are reasonably determined by us to be abnormal or unusual, shall be regarded as defects covered by our warranty obligation.

11.7.4 We shall remedy software defects which substantially impair the use in accordance with the Contract, at our option and depending on the extent of the defect, either by installation of an improved version of the software or by advice as to how to eliminate such defects or to avoid their effects. We do not warrant that the software will function without error in each configuration you select, unless such configuration has been specified by us.

11.7.5 We shall not be liable in any way for any claims based on data loss. You agree to perform a data backup in a machine-readable form at intervals adequate to the application concerned, but not later than at the end of the day on which the software was used.

You agree that you shall rely on your own skill or judgment and no reliance has been made or been placed by you on our skill or judgment, in connection with your entry into the Contract to purchase the Goods. In the event of any breach of the Contract by us, your remedies as the purchaser shall be limited to damages. Under no circumstances shall our liability in damages exceed the price of the Goods.

12. Intellectual / Industrial Property Rights

12.1. We shall not be liable for any claims of third parties relating to infringement of any intellectual or industrial property rights arising out of any unauthorised modification by you of any Goods supplied by us, or improper use or use by you of such Goods in a manner other than as specified in our publications or use by you of such Goods in combination with other products not supplied by us. In such event, you shall indemnify us and hold us harmless against such claims.

12.2. We shall not be liable for infringement of any intellectual or industrial property rights based on any Goods manufactured by us in accordance with your drawings, designs and specifications. In such case you shall indemnify us and hold us harmless against claims of third parties.

However, you agree that we may make available your documents to such third parties whom we commission, or intend to commission, supplies or services.

12.5. In the event of third-party infringement claims in relation to industrial property rights or copyrights against your use of the Goods, we take on the responsibility of securing the rights for continued use, provided that you promptly notify us in writing of any such claims, and with the understanding we reserve the right to take all appropriate defensive and out-of-court actions. If the continued use of the Goods is not possible under economically justifiable conditions, we shall, at our discretion, either modify or replace the Goods to remedy the title defect or take back the Goods and refund the purchase price less an amount taking into account the age of the Goods and the period of use.

12.6. You are only entitled to further legal claims for infringement of industrial property rights or copyrights within the limits of section 12. We shall have no obligations under section 12.5 above if the infringement is caused by the fact that the Goods are not used in accordance with the contractual specifications, user manual, manufacturer's instructions provided at the time of delivery or any or are used together with third-party components.

13. Rights to software

13.1. The respective underlying license conditions (End User License Agreements or "EULA") shall apply to all software delivered to the Customer.
